

RESOURCES FOR RELIGIOUS EDUCATORS

Debby Herman: revised August 22, 2007

TRAINING/NETWORKING OPPORTUNITIES

- Renaissance modules – in and out of district (usually about $140 + travel)
- O.W.L. training - (about $160 + travel)
- New DRE orientation, RE Chair/leaders workshop, Small RE Programs workshop, Safe Congregations and other day-long workshops offered as needed, usually with a small fee.
- R.E. Fall Ingathering (in-district, late September or October - $10)
- Leadership schools – EAGLES in the SLD and The Mountain in North Carolina – week-long programs offered every summer
- Meadville Lombard Winter Institute (Madison, Wisconsin in February)
- RE workshops at district meetings
- General Assembly
- LREDA fall conference (national) in mid October – registration of approximately $280 plus travel and hotel costs.
- LREDA Seaway (local chapter) fall meeting/retreat usually in early November, cost is less than $75 (plus travel) for a 24-hr. retreat.
- RE week at UU Summer camps (Star Island and Ferry Beach)
- RE retreat weekend at Camp Unirondack (last weekend in June)

ONLINE RESOURCES

- From the UUA website (uua.org)
 - ❖ From the Lifespan Religious Education home page, <http://archive.uua.org/re/index.html>, you can link to a vast array of information on resources, curriculum, teacher development, leadership, and the YRUU and worshipweb pages.
 - ❖ For information on ordering UU curricula available through independent publishers (not through the UUA bookstore), go to <http://www25.uua.org/re/currmap/notsold.php>, or link there from the RE home page.
 - ❖ For a calendar of Renaissance and other RE trainings and events go to <http://www.uua.org/events/index.shtml>.
 - ❖ For a calendar of upcoming Our Whole Lives (OWL) facilitator trainings go to <http://www.uua.org/religiouseducation/curricula/ourwhole/18217.shtml>.
 - ❖ For lots of information and creative ideas, check recent or archived issues of UU Faith Works (formerly REACH), published twice per year, at <http://archive.uua.org/re/faithworks>. Paper copies may be ordered at $20/yr. Each issue includes resources on RE administration, community building, curriculum and learning, leadership development, social justice, and worship.
 - ❖ Link directly to the youth office page at <http://uua.org/YRUU>

- ❖ Link to the young adult/campus ministry page at <http://uaa.org/ya-cm/index.js.html>
- ❖ Link to religious education credentialing information at <http://uaa.org/programs/ministry/reco/>
- ❖ Link to information on safety and ethics at www25.uua.org/cde/education/safecong.html
- ❖ To link to a congregational or district website, go to the district services page at <http://www.uua.org/aboutus/professionalstaff/districtservices/index.shtml> and refer to the sidebar.
- ❖ Link to the website for our professional organization, LREDA (Liberal Religious Educators Assn) at <http://www25.uua.org/lreda> for event information and resources on leadership, compensation, ethics and best practices, and much more.
- ❖ Link to the Church of the Larger Fellowship's website at <http://clf.uua.org/#> for a variety of resources and curricula designed to support small congregations and families. From "Publications" on the sidebar you may access their Between Sundays program; KidTalk, with information about celebrations for upcoming holidays; and supplemental materials for the UU & Me pages included in the UU World. In addition to access to many free resources, from their webpage you may subscribe to RE Express Plus ($129/yr) and receive new resources each month.
- To access the new online Safe Congregations (sexual abuse prevention) resource recently developed jointly by the UUA and the New England Adolescent Research Center, go to <http://courses.neari.com>. This free, interactive curriculum is based on Debra Haffner's book Balancing Acts. The manual itself may be downloaded for free from <http://archive.uua.org/cde/ethics/balancing>.
- Go to www.intergenerational.org for intergenerational worship service scripts – some involve children and youth in the actual service, others are for adults to present for an intergenerational audience
- Go to <http://www.rec-room.org/> for resources for planning & teaching UU RE programs. On this site find descriptions and ordering information for curricula not available through the UUA bookstore at www.rec-room.org/REsources/curricula.html.
- Go to <http://uure.org> and check out this independent site offering information on RE administration and ministries; original curricula, stories, skits & homiles; and handouts from past LREDA fall conferences. When registering, enter the following key: 156508.
- St. Lawrence District website: <http://sld.uua.org/>, youth website: <http://sld-yruu.org>
- A newsletter/information packet is distributed electronically by the St. Lawrence District three times per year and contains the latest information about district programming. Access it online from the district website at <http://sld.uua.org>.
- Online list-serves – REACH-I and LREDA-I (LREDA members only); also youth advisor, OWL leaders, and others – subscribe from <http://lists.uua.org/mailman/listinfo/uaa-l>

PRINTED RESOURCES

- Essex Conversations available from the UUA bookstore at <http://uua.org/bookstore/>
- UU Faith Works packets (see above - free online or $20/yr mailed)
- UUA RE loan library holdings (2 week borrowing – books and videos)
- Gould Library holdings (year-long borrowing). Catalog available from the district website, & mailed each fall, or upon request from the PC at pberman1@stny.rr.com.
- RE Roadmap: A Guidebook for Religious Educators on Administering RE Programs is one of the most useful resources available to UU religious educators. The recently updated version is available for purchase from one of the authors, Cindy Leitner, at cbleitner@hotmail.com.
- Starting from Scratch is a newly revised booklet packed with basic resources. Two new chapters address important issues of safety and diversity. (Also available from the UUA Bookstore)
- Welcoming Children With Special Needs by Sally Patton is a valuable resource for integrating all children into our programs of Lifespan Faith Development. Available through the UUA Bookstore. Sally also conducts Involve training workshops on this topic.
- Youth Advisor Handbook gives an overview of a balanced youth program, guidelines for leaders and program ideas. Available through the UUA bookstore.

OTHER SUPPORT

- Our professional organization, LREDA (Liberal Religious Educators Association), online at <http://uua.org/lreda/>, or see the brochure. Local chapter is Seaway. The Good Officer for our district is Jan Gartner, janw@rochesterunitarian.org or 585-271-9070
- UUA Fair Compensation guidelines, link to <http://www.uua.org/leaders/leaderslibrary/compensation/index.shtml> for charts and <http://www.uua.org/programs/ministry/finances/compplines.html> for basic info. (Please note that suggested professional expenses = 8 – 10% of salary)
- Covenant development between the DRE and the congregation or between the DRE and the minister or staff. Jeanne Crane is one of the professionals trained to provide this service for a fee - contact her at 585-394-5679.
- District RE Committee provides general support and training – contact the current chair through the Program Consultant
- Contact me, your St. Lawrence District Program Consultant for Lifespan Faith Development! I am always available for phone or email consultation at 607-484-0720 or pberman1@stny.rr.com, as well as for on-site consultation or workshops by request.